

God Says What He Means, and Means What He Says!

➤ = next PowerPoint slide

➤ Intro:

- illus.: Bob Huggins, men's basketball coach, West Virginia Mountaineers in Morgantown
- Shawn Falkenstein, reporter, Morgantown, West Virginia
  - article, March 28, 2010 (last Sunday), the day West Virginia beat the University of Kentucky in the Elite 8, and advancing to the Final 4
- beginning of article:
  - “If there is a better motivator in college basketball I've never heard of him.
  - “Bob Huggins is the best at getting the most out of his players and this run to the Final Four is a perfect example. Have you ever seen a more determined group of young men?
  - “They know the goal and are singularly focused on achieving it. . . . .
- reason for Huggins' success, according to the reporter
  - “The reason the players respect and love Huggins so much is because he is honest—for good and bad.
  - “He says what he means and he means what he says. He will never sugarcoat things when talking to his players or the media and he will never lie to them.
- as people, we understand that we have to be “straight” with people to succeed
  - some people aren't going to like it – the one's who aren't interested in doing the right thing
  - some people are going to love it – because they want to be successful
  - “shoot straight” with people, and you'll be the most successful you can be
    - religion, evangelism, sports, profession
  - i.e., “Say what you mean, and mean what you say!”
- - God, as Creator of the human mind and psyche, deals with us this way
  - men like Bob Huggins have been smart enough to figure it out, and have great success
    - but it originated from God
  - God says what He means, and means what He says!
    - we must understand this about God to have a successful relationship with Him
    - we must understand this about dealing with people, to have success with them

- God says exactly what He means – He says what He means, and means what He says
  - God says exactly what He means
    - Heb. 4:12 word sharper than any two-edged sword
    - illus.: story, Sadducees, not believe in resurrection (Matt. 22:23-33)
      - woman had a husband who died, she didn't have children so man's brother married her
      - her 2nd husband died, she still didn't have children so man's brother married her
      - continued till she had 7 husbands, who all preceded her in death
      - Sadducees' question – whose wife will she be in the resurrection
        - hypothetical scenario they thought proved their doctrine, no resurrection
      - Jesus, Sadducees wrong, neither knew Scriptures nor power of God
        - “But regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God: ‘I Am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’? He is not the God of the dead but of the living.” (illus.: Jesus, Rich man and Lazarus)
  - God's word is so sharp, and the tense of each word is so precise, Jesus disproved a false doctrine and taught truth based on the tense of a pronoun
    - warning: when people start using hypotheticals to prove a point rather than God's word, beware, it's probably false doctrine, else they would use Scripture – different from illus. from Scripture
      - illus.: hypothetical scenario of being in an airplane about ready to crash, someone could pray and be saved, so baptism is not essential for salvation – Mk. 16:16; Acts 2:38; 22:16; 1 Pet. 3:21
      - illus.: thief on the cross was saved without being baptized, so we don't have to be baptized to be saved – list reasons why incorrect, false assumptions, different dispensations and laws
  - God says what He means, and means what He says
- - ever bit of God's word will be accomplished
  - 1 Pet. 1:22-23, 25 word of the Lord stands forever, must obey truth to be saved
    - Is. 55:11 God's word does not return to Him void, but accomplishes what He desires
- - 2 Pet. 3:3-4, 9-10 some people mock God, because the last day has not come, they'll be unprepared to meet God
  - God's word accomplishes everything He ordains – He says what He means, and means what He says
- - people who don't respect God (obey) are punished
  - Lev. 10:1-3 Nadab and Abihu offered fire God hadn't commanded
    - didn't respect God, were punished for their sin, fire came out of heaven and killed them
  - 1 Ch. 13:9-10; 15:13 Uzzah touched the ark of the covenant, which Israel was transporting on a cart pulled by oxen
    - didn't respect God, punished with death, even though David and the people thought they were doing the right thing – ignorance not excuse
  - 2 Th. 1:6-8, 10b everyone punished who doesn't know God, believe, obey the gospel
  - God says what He means, and means what He says
- - but if we respect God (obey), we'll be rewarded for eternity – blessed in this life, and eternity
  - Rev. 7:13-17 the redeemed in heaven for eternity – eternal reward
- God says what He means, and means what He says
  - “you can take that to the bank” – count on it, don't doubt it, stake your life on it
  - if you believe it, you'll obey God

➤ God is not mocked – He does what He says – we reap what you sow

- mock: scornfully tease someone, to ridicule them, or to mimic contemptuously

- illus.: mocking someone / God

- 1 Ki. 18:27 Elijah mocked the prophets of Baal

- Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal

- take ox and prepare it for sacrifice but not put fire under it, then call on the name of Baal – nothing happened

- Elijah mocked them

- “Call out with a loud voice, for he is a god; either he is occupied or gone aside, or is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and needs to be awakened.”

- they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves according to their custom with swords and lances until the blood gushed out on them – Baal (fictitious god) never responded

- Elijah prepared his sacrifice

- had water poured on the wood three times, soaking the wood and filling the trench around it
- prayed to God

- fire of the Lord fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood and stones and dust, licked up the water that was in the trench

- Elijah killed the prophets of Baal

- Elijah fittingly mocked the prophets, because their idolatrous worship was a mockery to God

- they were punished with death

- Matt. 27:29 soldiers mocked Jesus before crucifying Him

- put a crown of thorns on His head and a reed in His hand and pretended to worship Him

- they mocked Jesus, but their mockery was punished

- Matt. 24 Jesus destroyed Jerusalem, the city where He was mocked and crucified

- Rev. 19 Jesus destroyed the Roman empire, whose soldiers mocked Him and crucified Him

- people (nations) who mock the Lord are brought down and punished

➤ - Gal. 6:7-8 don't be deceived, God is not mocked, we reap as we sow

- people who disobey God are mocking Him, but He'll put an end to it by punishing them

- Rom. 12:19b “Vengeance is Mine, I will repay,” says the Lord.

- Heb. 12:29 “for our God is a consuming fire”

- Rev. 2:10b “Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.”

➤ - Sodom and Gomorrah: examples of God's punishment of people who mock Him – reap what you sow

- Jude 1:5-7; 2 Pet. 2:4-6 example of Sodom and Gomorrah

- God is not mocked

- evil doers punished harshly

- the righteous will be saved – hope, confidence of the saved

- God is not mocked – He does what He says – we reap what you sow

- sinners punished for eternity

- righteous rewarded for eternity

➤ God holds us to the same standard, to say what we mean and mean what we say

- Eph. 4:14-15 speak the truth in love

- vs. 14 not craftiness and deceitful scheming – results in sin

- vs. 15 rather speak the truth in love – results in spiritual growth

- Christians are to be

- up-front and honest with people – shoot straight with people

- say what we mean, and mean what we say

- results is success

- with God – eternal life in heaven

- with people on earth – successful in our relationships because we're "straight" with people

- illus.: parents

- illus.: employers

- illus.: friends

➤ - 1 Pet. 3:15 always ready, make defense (speak truth in love), hope in you, gentleness and reverence

- preparation: must get ready – words, attitude

- if we're not ready, won't say what we mean and mean what we say

➤ - Pr. 26:18-19 shouldn't do and say sinful things, and then pretend we were "just kidding"

- with God there is no "just kidding" when it comes to sin

- be honest when make an honest mistake, or sin

- "just kidding" doesn't make a wrong, right

➤ - Matt. 12:34-37 words reflect what's in our heart (Pr. 26:18-19)

- vs. 36 judged for every careless word (idle word) – illus.: words spoken in anger or pain

- vs. 37 by words justified, by words condemned

- say what you mean, and mean what you say – you'll be judged for it later

➤ Summary / Inv.

- God holds us to the same standard by which He lives

- say what you mean, and mean what you say

- we can trust God to do exactly what He says

- punishment for sin

- reward for obedience

- inv. are you living by this standard – if you stood before the Lord in judgment today, would you be punished or reward for eternity
